The first business of the meeting was a detailed report by Louise Spratley on planned newspaper and other media advertising during the remainder of the campaign.

Mr. Lucas reported on the Arbitration Award as it related to college finances.

After some discussion, it was decided that newspaper advertising proposed for Wednesday and Thursday, March 6th and 7th, should be cancelled and that the school pamphlets to be taken home by pupils should be distributed on Tuesday, March 5th.

There was a general discussion regarding the distribution of the brochure advertising administrative positions. The brochures will be accompanied by a covering letter and are to be mailed as soon as practical.
