

Capilano College

Fashion Sketching

& Design

FASHION SKETCHING & DESIGN

Many people have wonderful fashion ideas but find it difficult to express them on paper. This course is intended to help such people develop the skills of creating and communicating design ideas. It is an 8-session course.

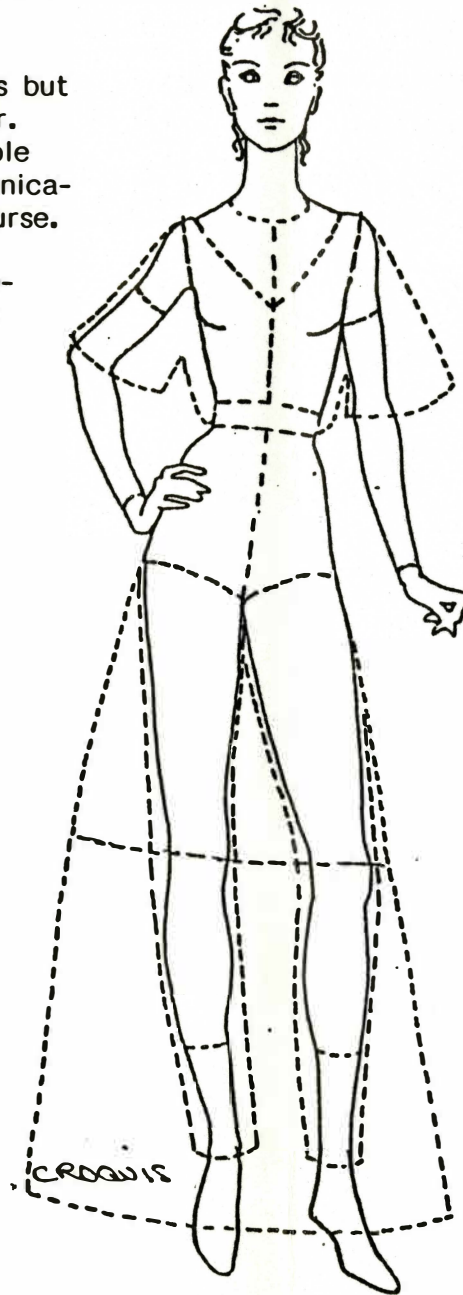

Students will be made aware of the influences that affect fashion, the sources of inspiration from which designs are developed and how to adapt the designs to the need of the market place.

At the end of the sessions the student will have acquired some basic fashion drawing techniques. You will be able to:

- * use a croquis
- * produce a design development sheet
- * do a production and presentation drawing
- * design a mini-line

Special features of this course:

- small classes - maximum 20
- suitable classroom in which to learn sketching and design
- live model
- individual advice
- latest techniques from experienced instructor
- FREE DRAWING PAPER AND PENCILS

Fashion Sketching & Design

Day: Monday, starting September 23
Time: 7:30 to 9:30pm
Sessions: 8
Place: Capilano College, Room A215
Fee: $135

The Instructor:

Eva Hall is a graduate of St Martin's School of Art and of Goldsmith's College, University of London, England, where she majored in Fashion and Design. She has travelled extensively and is up to date on all the newest fashion techniques. She has been an instructor at Capilano College for the past eight years in the Retail Management Department.

For registration & information phone
Capilano College Extension Programs:

986-1911, local 321

Capilano College

Serving North and West Vancouver, Howe Sound and the Sunshine Coast
Administrative offices -
2055 Purcell Way, North Vancouver, B.C. V7J 3H5 (604) 986-1911

9/85/100