A Community College Serving the School Districts of North Vancouver, West Vancouver, and Howe Sound.

Capilano College began as an idea on March 9, 1964 when a feasibility committee was struck to consider a two year college on the North Shore. A study was subsequently commissioned which recommended such a college.

On March 7, 1968, a plebiscite was held approving the establishment of a regional college in the facilities of the West Vancouver Senior Secondary School. Capilano College first opened its doors to 784 students in September, 1968.

Today marks the first graduating class of students who have achieved the Associate in Arts and Science Diploma, marking the successful completion of four terms of studies.
