IT'S CURTAINS FOR CAPILANO STUDENTS

Casanova, Don Quixote, Camille and Kilroy will be among the characters to appear on stage in Capilano College's production of Ten Blocks on the Camino Real by Tennessee Williams, March 26, 27 and 28 at Presentation House.

"This is certainly the largest production we've done to date," said Theatre instructor Bill Murdoch. "The play is a surrealistic play that deals with the reluctance of people to take risks and face death and the unknown. Instead they prefer to live with inequality as it exists. "

Theatre 201 students will be taking the major roles in this one act play, while other parts are being played by students in first year theatre. As well as working on the acting, music and choreography for this ambitious production, the students have helped design and build the sets.

Advance tickets for Ten Blocks on the Camino Real are available from the College's Humanities Division. Advance tickets cost $3.00, tickets at the door cost $4.00 and curtain time is 8:00 pm.
