

CAPILANO COLLEGE

COURSES ARE FOR EVERYBODY

Have you ever considered taking a course at Capilano College? Chances are that out of the hundreds of courses offered there will be one that interests you.

Here are some examples:

FOR THOSE WHO WANT TO KNOW WHAT MAKES OUR COUNTRY TICK

English 202, a study of Canadian literature; Sociology 200, Study of Canadian Society; Political Science 200, Canadian Government and Politics; Geography 106, B.C. — a regional analysis; Fine Arts 200, North American art — with special attention to Canada.

FOR THOSE WHO ARE INTERESTED IN ART

Art 152, life drawing, Thursdays, 7 - 10 p.m.; Art 154, general drawing, Thursdays, 7 - 10 p.m.; Art 158, design, Thursdays, 7 - 10 p.m.; Art 167, sculpture, Mondays 7 - 10 p.m.; Art 258, pottery and ceramics, Wednesdays 7 - 10 p.m.

FOR THOSE INTERESTED IN PRE-SCHOOL CHILDREN

Education 152 — Curriculum planning, Mondays and Wednesdays, 7-8:30 p.m.; Psychology 150, child psychology, Mondays and Wednesdays 8:30-10 p.m.; Health 150, nutrition, diseases, etc. of pre-school child, Tuesdays and Thursdays 7 - 8:30 p.m.

FOR THOSE WHO ARE INTERESTED IN MUSIC

Music 150, choral explorations; Music 120, music history; Music 100, music theory; Music 110, music appreciation; Music 160, methods of teaching instruments; Music 170, vocal repertoire; Music 172, piano repertoire; Music 174, instrumental ensemble; Music 180, piano class.

FOR THOSE WHO ARE INTERESTED IN LANGUAGES

Japanese 100, an intensive beginning course in basic Japanese; Japanese 101, first-year Japanese; French 102, an introduction to French using the audio-visual approach. Spanish and German are also available.

FOR THOSE INTERESTED IN "EXPANDING THEIR MINDS"

Think about these—

English 204, Major American writers to 1850; English 104, a study of twentieth century short stories and novels; Fine Arts 100, a history of art to 1400; Fine Arts 101, history of art, 1400-1750; History 201, Man and his city since 1850; Philosophy 101, introduction to philosophy; Economics 100, an introduction to economics; Biology 104, current concepts in biology; Geology 110, physical geology; General Studies 150, contemporary issues, science, a general overview of all phases of science; Psychology 100, introduction to psychology; Psychology 200, social psychology.

With a few exceptions, these courses do not require any educational prerequisites. All carry college credits and some carry university credits. You can register for these courses, or any others in the college calendar by calling the Student Services (926-5551) for an application form and an interview.