

First Nations Awareness Week Presents

Workshop by Joseph Fossella Sr. (Counsellor/Facilitator) and Daniel Parker (Counsellor/Facilitator), both are founders of the Warriors Against Violence Society. They believe that to address all issues damaging to First Nations people in this dominant society. Issues such as feelings, stress, social/cultural family of origin and the unknown.

Their purpose is:

*To improve awareness about family violence for aboriginal communities both on and off reserve through culturally sensitive services.

*To encourage participants to regain traditional family values through the use of the four sacred directions.
