

Women's Centre Classes

"Our Nite" on October 6 at 7:00 p.m. at the Elks Hall will feature Connie Chapman from the Sunshine Coast Transition House in Sechelt. The topic for discussion will be "Battered Women" with an emphasis on what can be done to assist battered women in Squamish. Many people would be shocked to know of the prevalence of this problem in our community.

"Our Nite" is held the first Wednesday of every month at 7:00 p.m. at the Elks Hall on Second Avenue. All women are welcome. Come and meet new friends, hear speakers, see films and other programs of special interest to women.

"Right Out of History," a film examining the making of Judy Chicago's "Dinner Party," will be shown Thursday, October 14 at the Elks Hall at 7:00 p.m. and again at 9:00 p.m. Tickets are on sale at the Howe Sound Women's Centre office, the Squamish Times office and at the public library.

On October 25, an "Assertiveness Training — Introduction" workshop will be led by Patty Moore from the Vancouver Status of Women. If there is enough response, a four-week course will follow.

The Howe Sound Women's Centre offers what they think is a good program and welcomes suggestions from the women of this community. For your input or for further information, call 892-5748 Monday through Friday, 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., or visit the office and pick up the fall schedule at 38036 Cleveland Avenue (above Highland Glass).
