

BRIGHT LIGHTS

Sports awards evening honours athletes

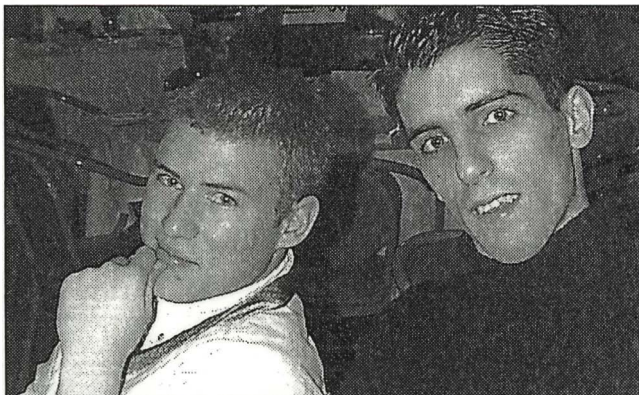

NEWS photos Cindy Goodman

Women's volleyball gang (from left) Michelle Wong, coach Wayne Desjardins, Sarah Needham and Gillian Hilliard (GPA winner with 3.44) all dined together.

Men's basketball coach Paul Eberhardt caught the event.

Jeff Whitey hoops it up with Vernis Blair, who took home a Rucanor award for basketball.

Cap women's soccer coach Doug Abercrombie has taken his team to three national and four provincial championship titles.

Executive director of the Capilano College Foundation, Lana Robinson and vice chair of the colleges' board of governors, Donnaleen Miller got talking.

Lisa Iwamoto (left) sits beside Melissa Chancey who took both MVP and All Star in basketball with Heidi Wong alongside.

Capilano College athletic director Joe Iacobellis teams with the representative for Coca-Cola, Victor Chow.

Cindy Goodman

bright lights

President of Capilano College Dr. Greg Lee gave the Athlete of the Year Award to Jeff Yoon (not in photo).

Sandra Stevenson, president of Sport B.C. for three years running, presented awards.

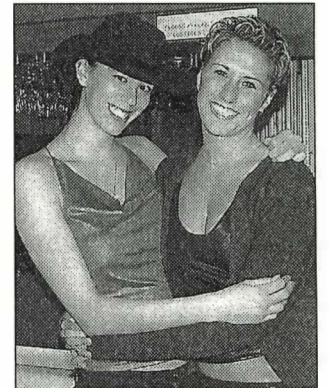

Keynote speaker for the evening, Simon Fraser University basketball coach Allison McNeill, welcomed all.

CHEERS restaurant was the venue for this year's Capilano College sports awards last Wednesday evening, March 29. Athletic award recipients included categories in badminton, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's soccer and women's volleyball. Students and faculty attended along with major sponsors Coca-Cola and Rucanor. Cara Valli took Female Athlete of the Year along with Jeff Yoon for Male Athlete of the Year, yet everyone was a winner on this special night.

All Star Alisah McPhee checked out her soccer team's photo with Heather Reid who won a scholastic honour for her 3.58 GPA.

Lindsay Diehl, active in both soccer and basketball, was honoured for her GPA of 3.11 while Kree Girard, a former ball player, now manages women's soccer.

Members of the badminton team, Patrick Ng, Wendy Soo, Mike Chun, Michael Clay, Rajiv Jhangiani and Eric Siu, boasted the team with the highest GPA average at 2.86.

The Graham Coates memorial soccer scholarship was presented by Barbara and Stuart Coates.