Viewbook 2020-2021

YOU BELONG HERE

It's never too late or too early to start working toward your dreams. Capilano University is a place to challenge yourself, explore your potential and connect to new experiences and opportunities. Whether you know exactly where you're headed or are still figuring it out, we'll help you get there.

By the end of your studies, you'll not only have a respected academic credential and the confidence to tackle that first big job interview, you'll also have memories to last a lifetime – like the day you met your new best friend or that feeling of exhilaration from exceeding your own expectations.

You belong here because you're ready to take the next step on your journey, and have the drive and determination to pull it off. And we'll be here to support you every step of the way.

Capilano University is named after Chief Joe Capilano, an important leader of the Squamish (Skwxwú7mesh) Nation of the Coast Salish people. We respectfully acknowledge that our campuses are located on the territories of the Lil'wat, Musqueam, Sechelt (shíshálh), Squamish and Tsleil-Waututh Nations.

WELCOME TO OUR BACKYARD

Shimmering blue seas, rugged mountain peaks and soaring old growth forests. North Vancouver, B.C., home to Capilano University's main campus, is an inspiring setting in which to learn and grow. When the school day is done, the outdoor adventures begin. Minutes from campus, you'll find hiking and mountain biking trails, secret beaches and world-class ski resorts with spectacular views of the Vancouver skyline. Further up the Coast, where CapU serves the communities of the Sunshine Coast and the Sea-to-Sky Corridor, you'll discover even more ways to enjoy the active West Coast lifestyle.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING AT ITS BEST

At CapU, learning happens in unexpected places. It might be a film set in the forest, an aquatic ecology seminar at a local stream or a Dragon's Den-style marketing pitch in a corporate boardroom. What all these experiences have in common is a hands-on approach to learning and problem solving in small, interactive classes that address real-world challenges. You'll build the skills, knowledge and experience to launch your career with confidence.

PROGRAMS

97 programs offered

13 bachelor's degrees

3 STEPS TO BECOME A STUDENT

1

EXPLORE PROGRAMS AND APPLY TO CAPU

Research the programs that interest you. Once you have made your decision, apply at capilanou.ca/apply. The application fee is $50 for domestic students and $135 for international students. Application deadlines vary for different programs. For details, see capilanou.ca/programs

2

SUBMIT DOCUMENTATION FOR ADMISSION

To be admitted, you must meet the general admission requirements of the University as well as any requirements of the program to which you are applying. Be sure to review the admission requirements and submit the documents that demonstrate you have met these requirements. See capilanou.ca/programs

If you are a current B.C. high school student you may self-report your grades between January 15 and March 31 for the fall semester.

International Students: Upon receiving a Letter of Offer, international students must pay a tuition deposit. As soon as the Centre for International Experience (CIE) receives this deposit, a Letter of Acceptance will be issued, which can be used to renew or apply for a study permit (and an entry visa, depending on citizenship). See capilanou.ca/international

REGISTER FOR CLASSES AND PAY YOUR TUITION

You will receive information about registration through your CapU email account including the date and time that you can start registering—this is your “Time Ticket.” Based on your Time Ticket, register as soon as possible for the best course selection. If you need help selecting courses, contact academic advising at advising@capilanou.ca

To secure your registration, pay the balance of your tuition before the fee payment deadline. Some payments take time to process. Please make payments up to 10 days before the fee deadline to confirm your registration. Always quote your CapU student number with any payment. See capilanou.ca/fees

Once accepted at CapU, take part in our JumpStart sessions, which are designed to help you prepare for university. capilanou.ca/jumpstart
