THE JAZZ SHOW
WITH DAVID SANBORN

The Jazz Show with David Sanborn. Two hours of the best in contemporary jazz. Latest releases. Artist interviews. And all that jazz! Tune in to the magic.

VANCOUVER'S
SOFT ROCK

The Players

More than 400 performers from Canada, U.S.A., Africa, South America, Europe and Australia.

Jon Ballantyne

● Superb young pianist from Saskatoon. At the Montreal Jazz Festival Competition '86 his trio was voted the "Best New Jazz Group in Canada." He performed with Dave Liebman, toured with the Woody Herman Band, recorded his first album, and brings his superb technique, sensitivity, and feel for swing to performance with an all-star Canadian quintet. (see Dave Turner for details)
HOT JAZZ - JUNE 26, 27

Bob Bell Band

● Guitarist Bell continues to produce joyous modern music, swinging in the post-pop/urban funk tradition. With roots in the early 70's voodoo of Miles Davis and the late 80's streetwise rap of the inner city... this trio includes Darcy Letwin (bass), and Mitch Lazer (drums).
GRANVILLE ISLAND - JULY 3

Saul Berson Quintet

● - Vancouver sax player who's toured extensively in Europe and the Middle East... played all the top venues and three international jazz festivals in Israel... will perform with... Bill Clark (trumpet), Ross Taggart (keyboards), Paul Blaney (bass), Stan Taylor (drums).
GRANVILLE IS. - JUNE 26

Michael Bisio Quartet

● This dynamic group blends blues, bebop and classical traditions into... "tough, committed jazz, executed with assurance and authority..." (Paul de Barros - The Seattle Times).

● Bassist Michael Bisio brings three excellent West Coast musicians Ron Soderstrom (trumpet), Teo Sutton (drums), Richard Mandyck (saxophone) together to make sizzling jazz in the soulful, free-ensemble style of Charles Mingus. Bisio has released 2 superb recordings.
AT THE PLAZA - JULY 1

Joe Bjornson Band

● ... trombonist, composer, band leader Joe Bjornson is dedicated to performing creative, experimental music... inspired by Anthony Braxton, Don Cherry, Sun Ra, Miles Davis... with Michael Blake (tenor sax), Bruce Nielsen (drums), Tim Stacy (bass).
V.E.C.C. - JUNE 26

Michael Blake Quartet

● Originally from Vancouver, Michael is just back from New York City where he studied under Dave Liebman. His recent stay in "The Apple" has inspired some quality compositions from this tenor saxman who leads: Ross Taggart (piano), Ken Lister (bass) and Blaine Wikjord (drums).
JAZZ AT THE PLAZA - JULY 2

Henry Boudin Quartet

● - a veteran alto saxophonist from Montreal... he's worked with many of the greatest jazz legends, Dizzy Gillespie, Ira Sullivan, Gunther Schuller... with Miles Black (piano), Scott White (bass), Stan Taylor (drums).
CLASSICAL JOINT - JUNE 24, 25

Brass Roots

● If you've heard the Dirty Dozen or Lester Bowie's Brass Fantasy - it's time to check out Brass Roots... Taking the tradition of the New Orleans carnival bands and shaking it up with a touch of the avant-garde, sousaphonist Brad Muirhead leads a dynamic modern marching band. Includes: Graham Ord and Bill Runge (saxes), Bill Clark and John Korsrud (trumpets), Dennis Essen (trombone), Bruce Nielsen and Dennis Burke (drums).

Randy Brecker Quartet

● - trumpeter who's covered a lot of ground during a 20-year career... has recorded with dozens of jazz and pop artists including Stevie Wonder, James Brown, George Benson, Charles Mingus, Art Blakey etc... has co-led two bands with his brother Michael... In 1983, formed a new group with his wife, keyboard player Eliane Elias which combines their writing and performing talents, delving into elements of Brazilian music, pop and jazz. Jay Anderson (bass) and Jeff Hersfeld (drums)
86 STREET - JUNE 28

Bill Bruford's Earthworks

● Bill Bruford (percussion and synthesizer) used to be a guiding light in the British "Art-Rock" movement, touring internationally with "Yes" and King Crimson". In the past 20 years Bruford has recorded with Brian Eno, Alan Holdsworth, Kazumi Watanabe, Jeff Berlin, Kenny Wheeler, David Torn, Mark Isham... Bruford's drumming concepts and pioneering work with electronic percussion have been very influential in contemporary popular music. Now he's more firmly rooted in jazz and playing with a remarkable line-up of English modern jazz musicians: Django Bates (keyboards), Iain Ballamy (saxophones), both members of the Loose Tubes Orchestra, and Mick Hutton (double bass).

Bill Bruford

COMMODORE - JULY 2

Gary Burton Quintet

● Burton, a Grammy-award winning vibraphonist several times over, is one of the leading musicians of our time..("Gary Burton is unquestionably the major voice on the vibes." - San Francisco Chronicle)...He's toured or recorded with such luminaries as Stan Getz, Carla Bley, Chick Corea, Keith Jarrett, Pat Metheny, John Scofield and Stephane Grappelli to name just a few...with Makoto Ozone (piano), Gildas Bocle (bass), Donny McCaslin (sax) and Martin Richards (drums).
V.E.C.C. - JULY 2

Casablanca Cowboys

● ... can be described as "...your basic cowboy-gypsy-jazz-bluegrass-latin string trio". Their unique brand of fusion draws upon a rich tradition of music: from Django Reinhardt to Bill Monroe...Doug Thordarson (violin, guitar, vocals), Ron Thompson (guitar), Ken Lister (bass).
OAKRIDGE - JUNE 25

Chief Feature

● The band is a marriage of traditional and avant garde elements... slightly off-centre tunes which you can't stop humming... Up-music! Bruce Freedman (sax) has appeared at the Nimes Jazz Festival in France as well as jazz festivals across Canada.. Clyde Reed (bass), Stan Taylor (drums), Bill Clark (trumpet).

Jim Chivers Quartet

● Drummer Jim Chivers leads his combo in a classic

mix of neglected standards by Coltrane, Mingus, Walton...along with some fine original pieces. Eric Vaughn (piano), Ken Lister (bass), and Michael Blake (tenor).

AT THE PLAZA - JULY 1

Bill Clark Sextet

● - using the mid 60's Blue Note Jazz Messenger's format as a springboard, Clark's Sextet expands the concepts with 80's charts inspired by Dave Holland... Bill Clark (trumpet), Pat Caird (tenor sax), Dennis Essen (trombone), Ross Taggart (piano, sax), Namateet (bass), Stan Taylor (drums).

HOT JAZZ - JUNE 29

Jay Clayton

● Jay is highly acclaimed for her perceptive jazz interpretation and vocal explorations... has performed and recorded with numerous jazz and new music leaders: Reich, Cage, Abrams, McFerrin, and is a member of Vocal Summit.
