THE RED HEAD COLLECTIVE

Sept. 28 to Oct. 16
opening Tues. Sept. 28, 8PM Artist talk Thurs. Sept. 30, 8 PM with Lorna Mills and a collection of RED HEADS

The Red Head is a group of artists from Toronto who have organized their own gallery. Their debut group show in Vancouver presents a varied cross section of current art practice in Mid Canada. As well as a chance for us to view their work, they themselves look upon it as an opportunity to expand upon themselves and explore the relevance of their image.
"Our challenge with the grunt show is to introduce ourselves to a new audience and accommodate a recent history. Individual memories & forgetfulness, myopia & insight go into the making of several fictions that can describe us as a group" -
Lorna Mills

Jan Wade

Oct. 19 to Nov. 6
Opening Tues. Oct. 19, 8PM

Jan Wade uses symbols from the Haitian Voudon tradition as well as from her own experiences within the African Methodist Tradition as a healing force, powerful images of redemption and empowerment did you go to a far off place or just the cottage this year? if you took a picture of yourself or someone else in a grunt T-Shirt, send us a copy.

we'll publish the best in our next brochure.
we'd especially like photo's of the grunt t-shirt on famous people in front of cultural institutions (your own definition of both).
you haven't got your t-shirt yet?
pick one up. $15 at the grunt.
