MORE VANCOUVER MUSICIANS' PICKS FOR THE JAZZ FEST

Compiled by Josephine Ochej

We could blither on and on about our picks for this year's du Maurier International Jazz Festival Vancouver, and I don't know about you, but I think some insight from the musicians who make the music year 'round in this town is a good idea to help sort through the tantalizingly huge smorgasbord of jazz delicacies available until June 28. Pick up a festival guide and get to it. Natch, don't forget to check out some stuff in your own backyard while you're at it. hey, like, maybe these guys...

SAXOPHONIST COAT COOKE

Vinny Golia, Leo Smith, Bertram Turetzky

Fri Jun 26, 2-4pm workshop. FREE. TOM LEE MUSIC HALL.

Jack DeJohnette's Oneness

TRUMPETER KEVIN ELASCHUK

Michael Blake's Slow Poke

He's from here, but been in New York for some years, apparently has a great album out. I haven't heard it yet but a bunch of musicians have told me it's fantastic.

VOCALIST KATE HAMMETT-VAUGHAN

Michael Moore's Available Jelly

I think this will be really interesting music. He's a wonderful clarinetist/alto saxophonist, a composer and musician who covers a huge range from chamber music to open improvisation. He's a member of one of my favourite groups of planet, Clusone Trio. Moore has great musical sense and integrity and I'm sure it'll be really great music.
