Vaughan is known as one of Canada's most individual and creative jazz vocalists. Hammett-Vaughan's highly personal and expressive vocal style incorporates the breadth of her musical interests, from straight-ahead soulful ballads to hard-swinging grooves and improvisational adventures. Her approach is fresh and invigorating, paying tribute to the jazz tradition while interacting and exploring, always seeking to express herself in the moment. Her fantastic quintet is the perfect setting for Kate's vocals, seamlessly moving from groove to groove and taking risks while challenging and supporting her at every turn. Nominated for a Juno Award in the category BEST VOCAL JAZZ ALBUM for her 2004 CD 'Eclipse' (Maximum Jazz), she's also garnered critical praise from all corners for 'How My Heart Sings' (2000 Maximum Jazz) and 'Devil May Care' (2002 Maximum Jazz). Kate also received a nomination in 2004 from the Canadian Independent Music Awards for Best Jazz Vocalist.
