

Stellar Sax Quartet

MUSIC

Monday, November 23, 9p.m., $7/5

Coat Cooke - Tenor/Baritone Sax
 Bob Walker - Alto Sax
 Daniel Kane - Baritone Sax
 Francois Houle - Soprano Sax

Coat Cooke is a Vancouver-based composer/saxophonist who has presented his music in various contexts ranging from the N.O.W. Orchestra to his own groups: The Evolution, The Stellar Sax Quartet, The Coat Cooke Quintet, and Lunar Adventures.

For this concert, the inspiration springs from many sources including; rock, chant, various jazz idioms, rhythmic and structured improvisation, and a general thirst for the transcendent and transformative aspect of what music can be. The concert will also feature compositions by other members of the ensemble.

AHASIW MASKEGON-ISKEW

PERFORMANCE SAKEHI' TOWIN ONIPOWAK

Tuesday, November 29, 9 p.m. $7/5

these words are you
 you are these words
 PEKISK WE'WINAH (words)
 I bore you NEHTAWI'KIWIN (a birth)
 now these breasts
 NASKI'KUN (my breasts)
 this womb
 NISTUM PIMATSI WIN KA MACHI'PAYIK(womb) have died
 NIKAWE NIPIW MIKAWE POONI PIMATISIW
 (my mother has died), (the mother no longer lives)
 MAWIHKATOWIN WESUKI TEHE'WIN (mourn)
 KIYA MATO (don't weep)
 KUKWATUKU'TAMOWIN (wail)
 you bear me
 I am dead
 I am you my flesh
 NI WIYA'SIM
 my bones
 NISKUN
 my soul
 UCHAHK
 now rot for you PISKUTI'TIN
 rot in you PISKUTI'TIN KEYA
 did you learn KISKEYIHTA to love death
 SAKEHI'TOWIN ONIPOWAK
 while loving me
 SAKIHI'WIWIN NEYA
 while I lay dying
 ATI'NIPIW NEYA dusk is coming WANINAK'WAHK PE NOKWUN
 wait for me
 PEHOWIN NEYA
 I will come, crying
 NEYA PETA'TAMOW
 the wind will carry my voice
 PETAS'TEW TEHTA KOSI WIN in the darkness
 NEPA 'TIPISK