City of Chicago • Richard M. Daley, Mayor

Dear Friends:

As Mayor and on behalf of the City of Chicago, I am pleased to welcome you to Chicago's longest running lakefront festival, the 24th Annual Chicago Jazz Festival, August 29 - September 1.

We invite you to join us Labor Day weekend as we play host to some of the world's most renowned jazz musicians. We are pleased to offer the musical talents of such greats as Wayne Shorter, Larry Coryell, Ahmad Jamal, George Coleman and the jazz band Sphere.

Along with great music, the Jazz Festival also provides many family-friendly activities, including the Jazz and Heritage Family Stage, which educates jazz lovers on the history of jazz music.

The 2002 Chicago Jazz Festival is supported by many fine sponsors, including American Airlines, Amtrak, Billy Goat Grill, Borders, Chicago Blues Museum Record Row Foundation, Chicago Transit Authority, Chicago Tribune, Citilink, Citysearch.com, CLTV-ChicagoLand's Television, Communications Direct, Community Bank of Lawndale, Down Beat Magazine, Dunkin' Donuts, Edy's Ice Cream, Ford and the Chicagoland Ford Dealers, Fuji Photo Film USA, Inc., Gardetto's, Heineken, Hilton Garden Inn, Holiday Inn City Center, Hyatt Regency McCormick Place, Ice Mountain Water Company, JazzTimes Magazine, Key Magazine, LaGrou Distribution System, Los Dos Laredos, M & M Graphics, Millennium Knickerbocker, Morningstar Farms, Palmer House Hilton, Pepsi-Cola, Robinson's #1 Ribs, SBC Ameritech, Sheraton Chicago, Star of Siam, ThermaCare, Verizon Wireless, Vienna Beef/ Gold Coast Dogs, W Hotel City Center, WBEE CD 1570 AM Radio, WBEZ 91.5 FM-Chicago Public Radio, WGN-Television, WSSD Radio-FM 88.1 and Yellow Book U.S.A.

Best wishes to all for a spectacular Labor Day weekend at the Chicago Jazz Festival.

Sincerely,

Mayor

August 29 Thursday

Petrillo Music Shell 6:00

David Sanchez Quintet
Patricia Barber
Larry Coryell Trio
with special guest Arthur Blythe

Patricia Barber

has established herself as among the great pianist-vocalists in modern jazz.

With a combination of surgical insight and larger-than-life sentiment, Barber attains real magic, as her liquid-nitrogen voice compels attention. This performance coincides with the release of Verse, her first album of all original music and lyrics.

August 30 Friday

Petrillo Music Shell 6:00

"Fifty Years of Big Band Jazz: A Tribute to Bill Holman" with the Chicago Jazz Ensemble
Ray Anderson's Pocket Brass Band
Ahmad Jamal
with special guest George Coleman

Bill Holman

rose to prominence as one of the key writers for the Stan Kenton Orchestra in the 1950s, then for the bands of Gerry Mulligan and Woody Herman, and since then his name has been synonymous with smart, inventive, and progressive arranging.

In honor of his recently celebrated 75th birthday, the Festival has invited him to lead the renowned Chicago Jazz Ensemble in a program of his work.

August 31 Saturday

Wayne Shorter

is one of the legendary names in music, a startling saxophonist,
the greatest jazz
composer of his generation, and a veteran of three great bands representing three eras of jazz: Art Blakey's hard-bopping Jazz Messengers, the progressive Miles Davis Quintet of the 60s, and the premier fusion band Weather Report. His new quartet, starring Festival favorite Danilo Perez on piano, has received rave reviews from around the globe.

Jazz & Heritage Family Stage

Chicago Jazz Festival 2002 Grant Park

Eric Reed

A Chicago Jazz Festival exclusive!

Recalling the great
"Jazz At The Philharmonic"

jam-session concerts

produced by Norman Granz from the 1940s

on, we've assembled our own group of younger virtuosi to let fly on well-known songs from the latter-day jazz tradition. Anchored by the Eric Reed Trio, the lineup includes trumpeter Russell Gunn, trombonist Steve Davis, baritone saxist Claire Daly, and tenor saxists Seamus Blake and Jim Gailloreto - all of whom will meet for the first time on the Grant Park stage.
