

The New Orchestra Workshop Society
The Western Front
Coastal Jazz and Blues Society

present:

IMPACT : HEAR IT NOW

The 17th Annual Festival of New and Improvised Music

Canada Council for the Arts

Conseil des Arts
du Canada

November 25-27, all shows 8 pm, The Western Front, 303 E. 8th Avenue

All tickets at Hi-Life Records and at the door. More Information: 604.254.5016 www.noworchestra.com

NOW Orchestra

Thursday, November 25, 8 pm. Tickets - $20/18

15-piece orchestra under the direction of Coat Cook, with special guest, American pianist Marilyn Crispell.

"...I regard the NOW Orchestra as one of the finest large creative ensembles active in the last twenty years. The combinations of high levels of individual creativity and virtuosity with a strong sense of collectivity is a rare and treasured combination that the NOW Orchestra manifests very strongly."

George Lewis, Earshot Jazz

Peggy Lee Band

Friday, November 26, 8 pm. Tickets - $12/10

Vancouver's finest musicians led by cellist Peggy Lee.

"Lee's tunes are as distinctive as her own rich cello sound: drawing on the jazz avant garde, contemporary chamber sounds, folk music, and even rock, they ebb and flow with an almost oceanic grace ..." Alex Varty, The Georgia Straight

granrojo

Saturday, November 27, 8 pm. Tickets - $15/12

A collision of electronic and acoustic music.

"Hypnotic and ambient-fused avant-garde audio collage."

Alex MacKenzie, The Blinding Light

Photo: Laurence M. Svirichev - Manipulation and Postcard: Hanif