3-5 p.m. daily

Tues., Nov. 7 VINNY GOLIA (Los Angeles)

Vinny Golia is an internationally recognized multi-instrumentalist and composer whose music fuses the rich heritage of jazz, contemporary classical and world music. His groups range from duos to the 15-piece Large Ensemble and he has performed with such musical greats as John Carter, Anthony Braxton and George Lewis.

Wed., Nov. 8 OLIVER LAKE (New York)

Saxophonist Oliver Lake is one of the most fiercely creative artists on the music scene today. A distinguished composer, Lake holds membership in the World Saxophone Quartet, leads the reggae/funk/jazz amalgam Jump Up and performs his compositions with the Brooklyn Philharmonic. One of modern jazz's leading artists.

Thurs., Nov. 9 PAUL PLIMLEY (Vancouver)

An exciting pianist and accomplished composer, equally at home with jazz standards or original works. Paul Plimley's workshop will allow students to play any instrument (and any combination of instruments) while being led through his own compositions. Within the compositions, many possibilities for solos and collective improvisations will be explored.

Fri., Nov. 10 KATE HAMMETT-VAUGHAN (Vancouver)

One of the West Coast's finest jazz vocalists, Kate Hammett-Vaughan will conduct a workshop that centers around the role of the vocalist in improvised music. Accompanying her will be saxophonist/pianist Rob Frayne and guitarist Ron Samworth. Vocalists and instrumentalists will be encouraged to participate in pieces structured for improvisation.
